

How to Prepare a Photo Scavenger Hunt

- Choose the location of the hunt. Make it safe and varied.
- List items to photograph. Include photo-techniques and subject ideas.
- Use challenging and creative clues that require some thought.
- Set a time limit, if appropriate.

Photo Scavenge Example (one hour)

- Something green
- Something using the 'rule of thirds'*
- Someone making a silly face
- Something with bokeh‡ in the background
- Something you can eat
- Two people conversing
- Something shiny (not a coin)
- A bird
- An object that is for sale (ask permission in a shop)
- Something antiquated
- A reflection
- A moving vehicle with writing on the side

Notes:

* Rule of thirds. See: <https://www.photokonnexion.com/rule-of-thirds-2/>

‡ Bokeh. See: <https://www.photokonnexion.com/definition-bokeh/>

